

THE CHURCH OF ST. JOHN THE DIVINE

The 4th Sunday of Easter

April 22, 2018

As people of God, we celebrate Christ in the heart of Victoria through joyful worship, building inclusive community, and putting faith into action.

St. John's acknowledges these ancestral territories of the Lekwungen people.

Welcome to the Parish Church of St. John The Divine, Victoria. We are a community of faith in the Anglican Tradition, seeking to live lives of faith, hope and love as part of this community of Downtown Victoria. We are on a journey of learning to be a welcoming, inviting, inclusive and serving community which is open to all.

Our worship reflects our rootedness in the Anglican tradition, whilst drawing on liturgies that reflect the long history and heritage of our Christian faith. Please join in as you feel able, and enjoy the words, music and opportunity for prayer and to be a part of our community.

If our service seems unfamiliar, please follow the cues from our leaflet, the ministers leading the service and those around you. Most of our Sunday morning worship services have the Eucharist, or Holy Communion, at the heart of our worship – please feel free to join us, whatever your tradition, in the sharing of bread and wine, at the station nearest to where you are seated. Gluten free wafers are available at all stations: please indicate if you need one.

Within the Anglican Church of Canada (under the advice of the Primate and the Chief Medical Officer for Canada) we would ask that bread is not dipped into the wine, as this has the potential to spread infection in a way that the sharing of the cup does not. If you would prefer not to share the cup then receiving only bread is considered ‘full communion’ (also known as ‘Communion in One Kind’).

If there is anything that you wish to talk about, please do take the opportunity to talk to the worship leaders, ministers and other members of the congregation following the service. If you wish to receive prayer for yourself or for another, there will be members of our Healing Prayer group in the south Quadra entrance who would be happy to pray with you as the Holy Communion is shared.

After our service we usually share coffee and an opportunity to get to know one another, in the Church Hall – through the door on the front left hand side. We have many visitors and newcomers here so please make yourself known to folks as you feel comfortable.

You are very welcome here. We don’t always get it right; please let us know when we do, and when we don’t. Please stay and be a part of our family, for however long you would like.

VULPIUS

GATHERING

Alleluia! Christ is risen.

All: The Lord is risen indeed. Alleluia!

May God's grace and peace be with you.

All: May our hearts be filled with joy.

Almighty God

All: to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hidden.
Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy name; through Christ our Lord.
Amen.

CHURCH FAMILY PRAYER

Loving God,

All: you've called us to be your family and to celebrate our life together in worship. We pray for all the members of our family, here and absent, and especially for our young people now as they continue their worship. Bless them, and each of us, in fun and learning, in friendship, and love.

Amen.

THE COLLECT OF THE DAY

The Presider invites all to pray.

Silence is kept.

Lord of the sheepfold,
whose love is not for hire:
we thank you that Christ laid down his life for us
when we could not help ourselves.
Give us strength to work for peace in the world he came to serve;
through the same Jesus Christ, the good shepherd.

All: Amen.

Prayers for an Inclusive Church (2009) alt.

THE PROCLAMATION OF THE WORD

THE FIRST READING

Acts 4:5-12

Hear what the Spirit is saying to the people of God.

All: Thanks be to God.

PSALM

The Lord is my Shepherd, therefore can I lack nothing.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul, he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death I will fear no evil:
for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff comfort me.
Thou preparedst a table before me in the presence of mine enemies:
thou annointest my head with oil my cup runneth over.
Surely thy goodness and mercy shall follow follow me all the days of my life:
and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.
Glory be to the Father, and to the son: and to the Holy Ghost.
As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be: World without end. Amen.

Setting: Jonathan Wikeley (b. 1979)

THE EPISTLE

1 John 3:16-24

Hear what the Spirit is saying to the people of God.

All: Thanks be to God.

GRADUAL HYMN (CP 459)

HAREWOOD

THE GOSPEL

John 10:11-18

Before the Gospel

Cantor or choir: My sheep hear my voice says the Lord : I know them and they follow me.

The Lord be with you.

All: And also with you.

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

All: Glory to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

After the Gospel

The Gospel of Christ.

All: Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

SERMON

Following the Sermon there will be a pause for Silence.

AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

All: We believe that God is present in the darkness before dawn;
in the waiting and uncertainty
where fear and courage join hands, conflict and caring link arms,
and the sun rises over barbed wire.

We believe in a with-us God who sits down in our midst to share our humanity.

We affirm a faith that takes us beyond the safe place:
into action, into vulnerability and into the streets.

We commit ourselves to work for change and put ourselves on the line;

to bear responsibility, take risks,
live powerfully and face humiliation;
to stand with those on the edge;
to choose life and be used by the Spirit
for God's new community of hope.

Amen.

Renewal of Vows

To mark the celebration of their wedding anniversary, John and Pat Jenkins will renew their wedding vows in a brief ceremony.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

THE PEACE

Please stand.

The Presider may introduce the peace.

The peace of the Lord be always with you.

All: And also with you.

All may offer their neighbour a sign of peace.

THE CELEBRATION OF THE EUCHARIST

OFFERTORY HYMN (CP 207)

SALZBURG

THE PRAYER OVER THE GIFTS

God of loving care,

All: you spread before us the table of life,
and give us the cup of salvation to drink.

Keep us always in the fold of your Son Jesus Christ, our Saviour and our shepherd.

Amen.

The image shows three staves of musical notation for a hymn. Each staff begins with a treble clef and a key signature of one flat (B-flat). The lyrics are written below the notes. The first staff has the lyrics: Celebrant The Lord be with you. People And al - so with you. The second staff has: Celebrant Lift up your hearts. People We lift them to the Lord. The third staff has: Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God. People It is right to give our thanks and praise. The notes are simple, using quarter and half notes with stems, and some phrases are marked with a wavy line above the notes.

It is right to give you thanks and praise,
 O Lord, our God, sustainer of the universe
 You are worthy of glory and praise.

All: Glory to you for ever and ever.

At your command all things came to be:
 the vast expanse of interstellar space,
 galaxies, suns, the planets in their courses,
 and this fragile earth, our island home;
 by your will they were created and have their being.

All: Glory to you for ever and ever.

From the primal elements
 you brought forth the human race, and blessed us with memory, reason, and skill;
 you made us the stewards of creations.

All: Glory to you for ever and ever.

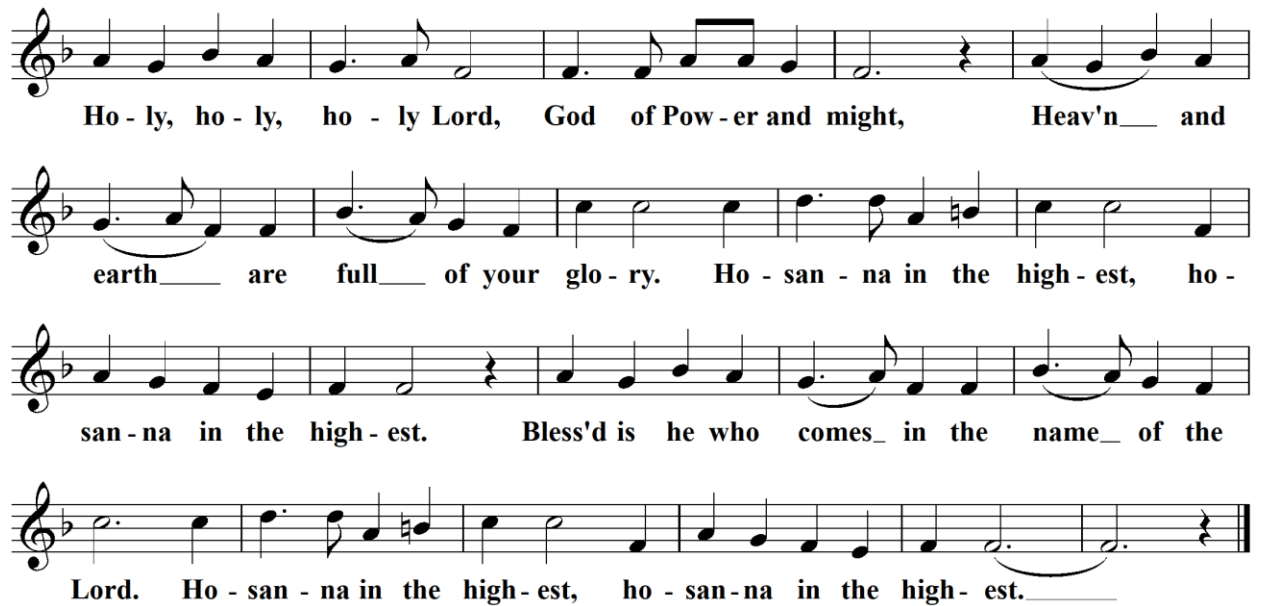

But we turn against you, and betray your trust;
 and we turn against one another.
 Again and again you call us to return.
 Through the prophets and sages
 you reveal your righteous law.
 In the fullness of time you send your Son,
 born of a women, to be our Saviour.
 He was wounded for our transgressions,
 and bruised for our iniquities.
 By his death he opened to us
 the way of freedom and peace.

All: Glory to you for ever and ever.

Therefore we praise you, joining with the heavenly chorus,
 with prophets, apostles, and martyrs,

and with those in every generation who have looked to you in hope,
to proclaim with them your glory,
in their unending hymn:

SANCTUS

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of Pow - er and might, Heav'n__ and earth__ are full__ of your glo - ry. Ho - san - na in the high - est, ho - san - na in the high - est. Bless'd is he who comes_ in the name_ of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high - est, ho - san - na in the high - est._____

Blessed are you, Lord our God, for sending us Jesus, the Christ, who on the night he was handed over to suffering and death, took bread, said the blessing, broke the bread, gave it to his friends, and said, “Take this, and eat it: this is my body which is given for you.
Do this for the remembrance of me.”

In the same way, after supper, he took the cup of wine;
he gave you thanks, and said, “Drink this, all of you: this is my blood of the new covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins.
Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.”

All: Glory to you for ever and ever.

Gracious God,
we recall the death of your Son Jesus Christ,
we proclaim his resurrection and ascension,
and we look with expectation for his coming as Lord of all the nations.
We who have been redeemed by him,
and made a new people by water and the Spirit,
now bring you these gifts.
Send your Holy Spirit upon us and upon this offering of your Church, that we who eat and drink at this holy table
may share the divine life of Christ our Lord.

Pour your Spirit upon the whole earth and make it your new creation.
Gather your Church together
from the ends of the earth into your kingdom, where peace and justice are revealed, that we, with all your people, of every language, race, and nation, may share the banquet you have promised;
through Christ, with Christ and in Christ,
all honour and glory are yours, creator of all.
Glory to you for ever and ever.

All: A - men, A - men, A - - men.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Ambrosian Chant

THE BREAKING OF BREAD

Lord, we died with you on the cross.

All: Now we are raised to new life.

We were buried in your tomb.

All: Now we share in your resurrection.

Live in us, that we may live in you

THE COMMUNION

The gifts of God for the people of God.

All: Thanks be to God.

AGNUS DEI

All are invited to receive communion at the side chapel, at the altar rail, or at the back of the church. Please follow the Greeters' instructions. Receiving bread or wine is considered full communion. It is the practice of the ACC not to dip the bread into the wine. Any not receiving communion are invited to receive a blessing, and to indicate that by holding their arms crossed on their chest.

If you are unable to come to a communion station please make this known to the Greeters and we will bring communion to you.

Gluten free wafers for communion are available. Please request them from the person who is distributing the bread.

Ministry of Healing

We invite those wishing prayer for themselves or on behalf of someone else to come to the front of the line to receive the bread and wine. Immediately after receiving, go to the prayer station in the south Quadra entrance. Briefly state your need. The prayer team will lay hands on your shoulders and will pray quietly for you.

MOTET DURING COMMUNION

O Messiaen (1908-1992)

O sacrum convivium, in quo Christus sumitur, O sacred banquet, in which Christ is received,
Recolitur memoria passionis eius; The memory of his Passion is renewed,
Mens impletur gratia, the mind is filled with grace,
Et future gloriae, nobis pignus datur. and a pledge of future glory is given in us.
Alleluia. Alleluia.

Words: Thomas Aquinas (1225-1274).

THE COMMISSIONING OF THE COMMUNITY

PRAYERS AFTER COMMUNION

Life-giving God,

All: in the mystery of Christ's resurrection
you send light to conquer darkness,
water to give new life,
and the bread of life to nourish your people.
Send us forth as witnesses to your Son's resurrection,
so that we may show your glory to all the world,
through Jesus Christ, our risen Lord.
Amen.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

A Prayer Group prays through the week; to request confidential prayers for yourself or others contact Pat Manning at: patriciacmanning@gmail.com or leave the request at the church office.

Prayer is the bedrock of our relationship with God through Christ. Individual requests for intercessory prayer (read at Sunday and weekday services) may be made by filling out a Prayer Request Card available at the back of the church (on the west wall) or by emailing the same information requested on the card to: carolann.zenger@stjohnthedivine.bc.ca.

Out of the Rain News:

Our night shelter for homeless street kids is now closed for the season and will open again in mid-October. A huge thank you goes out to all of you who supported our kids in some way over the winter months! We have 40 volunteers who supplied about 400 meals to an average of 15 kids on Monday nights and Tuesday mornings, as well as cookies and other treats.

Also greatly appreciated were socks, jackets, mitts and toques, hot chocolate, tea and jam. Thank you also to those who supported this street ministry financially, we couldn't do it without all of you! It's great to belong to such a generous and compassionate congregation.

With thanks,
Karyn and Gerry

Dear friends and family at St. John the Divine,

As we pack the last of our things and prepare to move East, I wanted to stop and say a big thank you, from both Matthew and me, for all of your support and encouragement over these last two years. We will miss you.

I also wanted to say a big thank you to everyone who made my last Sunday with you so special. I was moved by your love and support and your generosity. Thank you so much. I will always cherish you and our shared ministry at St. John's and am so thankful to have had the chance to serve with you for a time.

With love and thankfulness, Gillian

Parish Council Update

Parish Council received an update on the review of the lighting within the church and gave approval for the project team to move to the next stage of getting tenders for the planned improvements. The Treasurer gave an update on the parish financial statements for the first quarter of the year and informed Council that the conversion to the new account structure is complete and monthly financial reports will be available from now on. A brief summary of the financials is below. A report was presented from the Property Committee on the condition of the cottage and the various hazardous materials it contains. Due to these materials, the cottage will be sealed and no one will be allowed to enter until such time as it can be demolished. It was decided to close the Ministry Matters Fund that was created in 2016 to fund the Deacon's honorarium as the honorarium is now included in the general budget. The remaining funds in the Ministry Matters Fund will be returned to unrestricted funds.

Further information is available on the web site.

Our blue envelope special collection for April 2018 is for the Sisterhood of St. John the Divine (SSJD). This traditional Anglican monastic community was established in 1884 and has had a continued presence in Canada for 134 years. Prayer is of vital importance in the lives of the Sisters as is a balanced life of prayer, work and rest.

Did you know that in our Diocese, SSJD has been a praying presence and a house of hospitality and worship since 2002, residing at 3937 St. Peter's Road (next to St. Peter's, Lakehill)? The Victoria-based Sisters (currently Sr. Brenda, Sr. Amy Joy and Sr. Dorothy Grace) visit all of the churches in the Diocese at least once per year. You will recognize them by their blue habits. These Sisters have been a steady presence at the province's Truth and Reconciliation hearings, providing prayerful support to our First Nations people as they have given their testimony. They are committed to being a part of the change that is needed in the relationship between First Nations, the Church and the government.

For more information on the Sisterhood and their local presence:

- Visit the website www.ssjd.ca
- Join the Sisters on St. Peter's Road for worship.
- Read their 130th anniversary book "A Journey Just Begun" available through the Sisters or on Amazon.
- Contact Sandi Austin, an Oblate of SSJD

Please consider a donation this month to assist the Sisters to maintain their praying presence in our Diocesan community.

SOUL SPACE

Things to nourish our spiritual journey

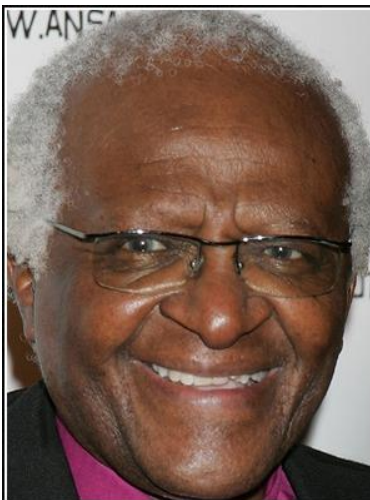

The Good Shepherd

Because he would not abandon the flock for a lost sheep
after the others had bedded down for the night,
he turned back, searched the thickets and gullies.
Sleepless, while the flock dozed in the morning mist
he searched the pastures up ahead. Winter nearing, our wool heavy with brambles, ropes of muddy ice,
he did not abandon the lost sheep, even when the snows came.

Still, I knew there was only a thin line between the good shepherd and the butcher.
How many lambs had put their heads between the shepherd's knees, closed their eyes, offering their neck to the knife?
Familiar – the quick thuds of the club doing its work.
More than once at night I saw the halo coming.
I ran like a deer and hid among rocks,
or I crawled under a bush, my heart in thorns.

During the day I lived my life in clover watching out for the halo.
I swore on the day the good shepherd catches hold,
trying to wrestle me to the ground and bind my feet,
I will buck like a ram and bite like a wolf,
although I taste the famous blood
I will break loose! I will race under the gates of heaven, back to the mortal fields, my flock, my stubbled grass and mud.

Stanley Moss

In most, when you go to church, most churches when they have images of the good shepherd, they show Jesus carrying a nice fluffy lamb. Now fluffy little lambs don't stray from their mommy's. The sheep that will stray is the most obstreperous, troublesome one.
